

ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE

An Administrative Leave with or without pay is given when it is determined to be in the University's best interest that an employee not return to work for a specified period of time or for designated emergency closings of the university. Time charged as administrative leave will not be charged to paid leave.