

LANGSTON UNIVERSITY

Annual Honors Day
CEREMONY

THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 2024 • 11:00AM • I.W. YOUNG AUDITORIUM

Traci D. Manuel

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Traci D. Manuel, a classroom teacher and state ambassador for K-12 Public Educators, was named the 2023-24 Oklahoma Teacher of the Year. Only Manuel and one other African American Teacher have held this esteemed honor in the state's history. It is one of the highest awards a teacher can earn during their career. As state teacher of the year, she travels the state sharing her P.U.S.H. passion project which allows her to not only represent the great educators in Oklahoma but also spread her personal message of how teachers are thriving even under adverse circumstances in the modern classroom.

Manuel's fierceness, dedication, and unique teaching methods, inside and outside of the classroom, have always caused her to be a motivator and champion for all children. Her unconventional path to teaching shows her that the difference starts in the classroom. This teaching path started for her as a full-time graduate student where she began studying the effects of the achievement gap on African American students at Ann Arbor Public School District. The outcome of this study propelled her to dive deeper into the data to see if there were similar disparaging academic parallels with her hometown of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the home of the infamous Tulsa Race Massacre. After further research, she was astounded by the alarming connections that she saw. Motivated to make a difference, she eventually moved back home to Tulsa where she started, first, as a long-term substitute, and moved through the ranks as a teacher assistant, a parent facilitator, and finally a certified classroom teacher.

Manuel has over 13 years of teaching experience and has taught at KIPP Tulsa, Central Junior & Senior High, Carver Middle and Booker T. Washington High Schools. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature from Philander Smith University, a Historically Black College & University, in Little Rock, Arkansas. While an undergrad, she participated in the Ronald E. McNair Post-baccalaureate Achievement Program which gave her a full scholarship to pursue her master's degree at Eastern Michigan University and offered her a Graduate Assistantship. Unfortunately, after the sudden passing of several relatives, she returned home to help out.

Her motivation to never give up is attributed to her teaching village and today in her English classroom, she pours that same knowledge and strength into her students. She is now teaching at the school where she was told by a counselor her senior year that "she had no educational options" to pursue after graduation. These life lessons and combined experiences have given her the urgency to help average students gear up for college by partnering with community groups to ensure kids have the resources and tools to make college an option. Manuel shows students that life has two roads, and she took the one less traveled and that has made all the difference

Dear Langston

Words By Samuel Sadler

Music By F.J. Work

First Verse

High on a throne with royal mien,
Our hope and our mother stand.
All gaze with pride upon the scene
High o'er the silv'ry strand;
All gaze with pride upon the scene
Where our hope and our mother stand.

Chorus

Dear Langston, Dear Langston,
Thy sons and daughters brave
Will strive on with courage
Their honored shrine to save.
With a "Sis! Boom! Bah!" and a "Hip! Hurrah!"
with a "Hip-hur-rah!"
We rally to Langston, Dear Langston, to thee.

Second Verse

If ever man should dare bring low
Thy blazoned banner high,
We'll battle with the vicious foe
and for thy honor die.
We'll strive and overcome the foe,
or for thy honor die.
