

2024-2025 CONTRIBUTORS' MARITAL AND TAX FILING STATUS CONFLICT

Date of Birth:	Phone Number:

The contributors' reported 2022 tax filing status is inconsistent with the contributors' reported FAFSA marital status. Although the reported tax filing status may accurately reflect the contributor tax filing status for the 2022 tax return, we are required to verify this information.

According to the IRS, a taxpayer must use a tax filing status of married filing jointly or married filing separately if they are married or considered married on December 31, 2022. If you were "unmarried" or "considered unmarried" on December 31, 2022, your tax filing status is single, or if you have a qualifying dependent you may file as head of household.

Note: Unmarried contributors living together must provide BOTH contributors' 2022 tax return transcripts.

Additional documentation or corrections to the FAFSA may be required to resolve these discrepancies. Please verify the following information.

1. As of the date the FAFSA was completed, what was the contributor(s) marital status (Select One)? For example, if mother is married to stepfather, but divorced from bio father, indicate "married" and update the FAFSA with stepfather's information)
